

This statement comprises the slavery and human trafficking statement of Arup Group Limited ('Arup') for the financial year ending 31 March 2017 in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Arup is a provider of professional consultancy services with more than 12,000 employees worldwide. Ove Arup & Partners International Limited and Ove Arup & Partners Limited are subsidiary companies registered in the United Kingdom and both of which have ratified this statement.

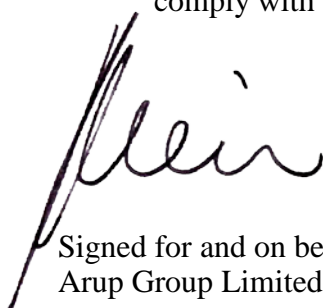

Arup's supply chain includes professional services firms acting as sub-consultants (in the delivery of professional services), as well as suppliers of services and equipment to our offices.

During the relevant financial year we have taken various steps to review policies and procedures in our business and supply chains, in light of this new legislation.

Our UK Sustainable Procurement Strategy has facilitated improvements, including fairly traded goods and the London living wage for outsourced staff (in accordance with the guidance of Living Wage Foundation). An audit of facilities management contracts in the UK has been undertaken.

We are also in the process of developing a supply chain compliance programme which will consist of:

- a template Request For Proposal and standard terms and conditions for potential suppliers (enabling assessment of compliance with Arup's requirements and incorporating obligations regarding supply chains);
- Arup's standard sub-consultancy agreements amended to include obligations to comply with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
